

People & Places

The following Greenfield BizVenture! participants presented their business plans in mid-July and were welcomed into the Young Entrepreneurs Society, Inc.: Zak Bates, Brandon Clark, Spencer Eugin-Moore, Tashya Haase, and Sarah Sullivan. The group also traveled to New York City for a two-day business trip.

Congratulations to four summer GirlVenture Grads who formed two business teams: Jessica Westover, Stephanie Westover, Alexa Drozdowski, and Alicia Wells.

elder service caseworkers and fire prevention instructors from several area fire departments team up to help ensure the region's home-bound elders and persons with disabilities have smoke alarms installed, adequate escape routes created, and existing fire hazards (such as unsafe wood stove installations or overloaded electrical systems) identified and addressed. This service is made possible by a recent Homeland Security Assistance to Firefighters Grant awarded to the Deerfield Area Fire Protection District.

Buckley Air Force Base, Denver, CO.

Benjamin Pease of Athol was recently awarded a BFA in Illustration from Massachusetts College of Art in Boston.

Orange residents Scott Gallagher, a Criminal Justice major, and Shawn M. Gonynor, a Business Management major, recently graduated from Westfield State College.

known as Community Services. The department will now be known as Department of Community Education at Greenfield Community College. For more information, call Robert J. Barba at (413) 775-1606.

Air Force Airman 1st Class Daniel E. Monahan has arrived for duty at Minot Air Force Base, ND. He is the son of Patrick J. and Kathleen A. Monahan of Easthampton.