

Revitalization Partnership, is a four-month small business training course.

Deborah Becker, executive director of ORP, will open the ceremonies, followed by local businessman Donn Deane, who will give the keynote address.

Cohen-Mitchell will give an introduction to the YES program, including a slide show taken by YES members, and the teens will give a presentation of their business plans.

Graduating are Joe Cowburn, Leon Howard, Justine Lunny, Scott Lunny, Jesse Meunier, Melanee Oakes, Sheila Patria, Sam Robinson and Jerry Whaland.

Refreshments will be served following commencement.

YES is supported by Athol-Orange Kiwanis Club, Athol-Orange Rotary Club, Ben & Jerry's Foundation, Community Coalition for Teens, Franklin County Community Development Corporation, Mahar Key Club, National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship, North Quabbin School to Work-Careers Partnership, Tobacco Free Greater Franklin County, Town of Orange Community Development Office, and University of Massachusetts, Amherst Public Service Endowment.